BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards for the information of Govt: a copy of the Chief Commandant's letter No: 2928 of the 16.3.07, reporting the tentative arrangements he has made regarding a Paymaster in the various Regiments.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

After prolonged controversy on the Subject of appointing a Separate Paymaster for each regiment to Supervise the disbursement of pay and the preparation of accounts in the Military Department Govt: laid down in the last para their order no: M: 2320-1/8 Fin 1-03-12 & the 15th September 1906, that the Squadron Com-manders should be charged tentatively for one year with the duty of the disbursement of p & preparation of accounts.

But the Chf: Commander now reports that, as it would much to give the work of payma to a Squadron Commander who has enough work of his own in the Squadron, he has as a te-tive measure appointed a Bri Commander Rissaldar as Paym in the Imperial Service Regimen and a Jemadar in the Local Service regiment.

In appointing a Risaldar instead of a Squadron Commander for the important purpose in questi the Chf Commandant appears t have departed from the direction gi to him in consultation with the Mil Dept (Vide Paras 8 & 9 of this memo.

the Comptroller – (his note of the 6.8.06 + his letter of the 17.7.05). Of course, there has from the first been a difference of opinion between the Chief Command + the Military Asstt. As the Chief Commandant has however reported that what action he has taken in the matter of the G.O. of the 15.9.06, the reference may for the present be recorded + a report called for at the end of the tentative period.

I am not sure, if the arrangements made ensure the prompt disposal of claims and the correct preparation of accounts.

The Mily is a ~~large~~ large spending department, and the departmental officer in charge of cash and accounts should be well trained in this branch of the subject.

No orders can, perhaps, be passed at this stage

The question may again be considered by Govt. at the expiry of the tentative period. [The outside audit ~~of~~ branch of the Comptroller's office being distinct from the daily audit section, it seems that the inspection of the former will not be so effective as would have been otherwise].

The arrangements made by the Chief Commandant do not vary from those sanctioned by Govt. in their order of 15-9-06; but as he represents that Squadron Commanders have too much work to do, the action taken by him may be approved & the report of Govt's working awaited.

Submitted to His Highness.

In His Highness' order dated 13th September 1906, the proposal to entrust Squadron Commanders tentatively with the duty of disbursing the pay and preparation of accounts was approved, and in Proceedings No.2320-1 Gl.Fin.1-03-12 dated 15th idem, the needful orders were issued on the subject.

The Chief Commandant now reports that as it is not possible to entrust the work of a Pay Master to a Squadron Commander who has already enough work to do, he has appointed a Troop Commander Risaldar as Pay Master in the Imperial Service Regiment, and a Jemadar in the Local Service Regiment, as Pay Master. As regards Infantry Regiments, he states that in the 2nd Battalion he has appointed a Jemadar as Pay Master in the absence of a suitable Subedar there, while in the other Regiments, he has appointed Subedars for this work.

As these arrangements vary from those originally sanctioned by His Highness, I submit the papers for His Highness' information. The arrangements made by the Chief Commandant may be tried for a year.
